

1. What might happen if salmon become endangered?

- A. Bears might have a hard time getting the energy they need.
- B. Bears would have an easier time finding food.
- C. There would be more bears in the wild.
- D. There would be less insects in the wild.

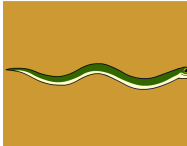

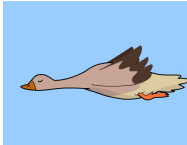

2. Fossil teeth can tell about what dinosaurs ate. What do you think this animal ate?

- A. spiders
- B. fruit
- C. insects
- D. meat

3. What happens when a frog eats a fly?

- A. Some energy moves from the predator to the prey.
- B. Some energy moves from the prey to the predator.
- C. Some energy moves from the producer to the consumer.
- D. Some energy moves from the consumer to the producer.

4. Which living thing is a producer?

A. 	B.
C. 	D.

5. A carnivore is an animal that eats only animals. What might you call an animal that eats only insects?

- A. herbivore
- B. insectivore
- C. omnivore
- D. mammal