

1. What is one reason why the dodo bird became extinct?

- A. The dodo birds all died because of diseases.
- B. The dodo birds flew and got caught in a storm.
- C. The weather got too cold for the dodo birds to survive.
- D. People brought new predators to the dodo birds' habitat.

2. Why is the rafflesia endangered?

- A. because its habitat is being destroyed
- B. because it smells like a dead animal
- C. because it grows too big for its habitat
- D. because it is often killed by predators

3. What can you do protect endangered species?

- A. Visit rainforests and bring home plants and animals.
- B. Tell government leaders to protect and clean up land.
- C. Spray chemicals that kill weeds and harmful insects.
- D. Get a new pet and learn how to take good care of it.

4. Many countries have RESERVES to protect endangered species. What is a RESERVE?

- A. a large amount of drinking water
- B. a large community vegetable garden
- C. a person who is trained to help animals
- D. an area of protected land or water

5. How do scientists help endangered plants?

- A. They destroy forests and clear land for more buildings and roads.
- B. They cut them down and dry them so they can be saved for later.
- C. They make plastic plants to put in place of the endangered plants.
- D. They grow them in special areas and bring them back into the wild.