

Check out these key words from the Living and Nonliving Things movie!

living thing anything that grows, changes, and dies. Living things need energy to live and can make more of its own kind.

nonliving thing anything that is not alive or was never alive. Nonliving things can't grow, change, reproduce, or die.

survive

to continue to live

reproduce

to make more of its own kind adapt to change to fit into an environment

habitat

a place where a plant or animal lives energy

the ability to do work or change